

Weill Cornell Educational Workshop Winter/Spring 2016 Series

Sessions are held two Wednesdays each month from 2:30-4:00pm

New York Presbyterian Weill Cornell Medical Center

Starr Building 520 East 70th Street, 8th floor

8th Floor Conference room

January 20: Immunosuppression Medications and Their Side Effects (CORE).

Presented by Hanna Lee, Pharm.D., BCPS and Esther Liu, Pharm.D., BCPS. Clinical Pharmacy Managers, Solid Organ Transplantation

February 3: Alcoholism and Liver Disease. Facilitated by Anna Salajegheh, MD Liver Transplant Psychiatrist

February 17: Liver Disease and Listing Criteria (CORE). Presented by Catherine Lucero, MD Assistant Professor of Medicine

March 2: Patient Stories (CORE). Facilitated by Samantha Bennahum, LCSW, Liver Transplant Social Worker

March 16: Organ Access- Understanding Your Path to Transplant (CORE). Presented by Karim Halazun, Assistant Professor of Surgery Division of Liver Transplantation and Hepatobiliary Surgery

April 6: Hepatic Encephalopathy. Presented by Arun Jesudian, MD Assistant Professor of Medicine.

April 20: Immunosuppression Medications and Their Side Effects (CORE). Presented by Hanna Lee, Pharm.D., BCPS and Esther Liu, Pharm.D., BCPS. Clinical Pharmacy Managers, Solid Organ Transplantation

May 4: Living Donation in Liver Transplantation (CORE): Presented by Benjamin Samstein, MD Chief of Liver Transplantation and Hepatobiliary Surgery at Weill Cornell, Surgical Director of Living Donor/Liver Transplant Program

May 18: Tips for Staying Compliant to Diet Guidelines. Presented by Abby Arday, RD, CDN

Please contact Samantha Bennahum, LCSW for any questions: 646-962-5337.