Dr. Michael J. Pitman, an internationally recognized expert in voice restoration, voice conservation, and the care of swallowing and airway disorders, brings extensive experience and pioneering research to his roles as Chief of the Division of Laryngology at NewYork-Presbyterian/Columbia and Director of the newly established Voice and Swallowing Institute at ColumbiaDoctors. Dr. Pitman received his medical degree from the Albert Einstein College of Medicine, where he graduated as a member of the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Society. He completed his residency in otolaryngology at the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary, followed by a fellowship in laryngology and care of the professional voice at Vanderbilt University Medical Center. Most recently, Dr. Pitman served as laryngology division leader of the New York Eye and Ear Infirmary of Mount Sinai and the Mount Sinai Health System.

Dr. Pitman specializes in the treatment of disorders that include:

- vocal fold paralysis
- cricopharyngeal dysfunction
- spasmodic dysphonia
- laryngopharyngeal reflux
- chronic cough
- laryngotracheal stenosis
- vocal fold polyps, nodules, and cysts

At NewYork-Presbyterian/Columbia, Dr. Pitman leads a team of otolaryngologists and neurotologists with expertise in providing the full spectrum of vocal and throat care to patients of all ages.
