

2019 Commission on Cancer Accreditation

NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital's Cheryl R. Lindenbaum Comprehensive Cancer Center Earns National Accreditation from the Commission on Cancer of the American College of Surgeons.

The Commission on Cancer (CoC), a quality program of the American College of Surgeons (ACS), granted full Three-Year Accreditation with Commendation to NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital. A cancer program must meet 34 CoC quality care standards, be evaluated on a three year basis via a survey process, and maintain levels of excellence in the delivery of comprehensive patient-oriented care in order to obtain voluntary CoC accreditation. Accreditation with Commendation is only awarded to a center that exceeds standard requirements at the time of its triennial survey evaluation.

As a CoC-accredited cancer center, NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital takes a multidisciplinary approach to treating cancer as a complex group of diseases. Consultations among a wide-ranging group of cancer specialists from the Columbia University Irving Medical Center and ColumbiaDoctors, demonstrates NYPHVH's commitment to providing patient-centric care. By offering a full range of services, from screenings through rehabilitation, the hospital meets the high standards put forth by the CoC.

The CoC Accreditation Program provides the framework for NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital to enhance care quality through various cancer-related programs that focus on prevention, early diagnosis, education, screenings, and an assortment of treatment options and rehabilitation. While receiving care at a CoC facility, patients have access to information on clinical trials and new treatments. The hospital's Cancer Survivorship Program focuses on strategies for managing symptoms, maintaining health after treatment, planning follow-up visits and screenings, and ensuring access to ongoing support and educational tools.

Since its inception in 1922 by the American College of Surgeons, the CoC has been committed to improving cancer patient outcomes and quality of life through standard-setting, prevention, research, education, and quality care. Its membership includes Fellows of the American College of Surgeons.

Wine and Dine Supports Cancer Center and Program April 3

On Wednesday, April 3rd, over $100,000 was raised at NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital's 9th Annual Wine and Dine event. The money benefits the hospital's Cheryl R. Lindenbaum Comprehensive Cancer Center and Cancer Program. The Wine and Dine event, which took place at the Sleepy Hollow Country Club, drew a crowd of 400 guests representing local businesses, physicians, politicians, and other supporters of NYP Hudson Valley Hospital. The hospital strives to be the #1 provider of cancer care in the region, which the guest's generous contributions help support. More than 30 local restaurateurs and wine vendors donated a delicious assortment of food, wines, liquors and desserts for guests to enjoy.

National Certified Nurses Day and National Doctors' Day March 27 & 28

Along with healthcare organizations coast-to-coast, NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital recognized its Board Certified Magnet nurses and distinguished physicians with back-to-back celebrations in the Main Lobby on Wednesday, March 27, in honor of National Certified Nurses Day, and Thursday, March 28, in appreciation of National Doctors' Day.

National Certified Nurses Day acknowledges the dedication of nurses who seek Board Certification, affirming their leadership, advanced understanding of nursing, and overall commitment to care. National Doctors' Day celebrates our physicians' commitment to their patients and community at large. We are proud to recognize these distinguished professionals and offer continued support to them.

Senior Program May 14

The city of Peekskill has announced a new collaboration with NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital and Feeding Westchester entitled "Cooking for Health", a community cooking initiative for senior citizens. The program kicked-off on April 24th and takes place at the NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital's Chef Peter X. Kelly Teaching Kitchen. "Cooking for Health" focuses on how seniors can support their health through good nutrition and hands-on cooking.

The series is led by Chef Johnathan Zamora, Senior Services Site Manager for the City of Peekskill's Senior Nutrition Program, Chef Emilie Berner, Chef and Coordinator at NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital's Chef Peter X. Kelly Kitchen, and Jodie Ferrari, RD, Clinical Nutrition Manager at NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital.

On Tuesday, May 14th, the City of Peekskill marked the launch of "Cooking for Health" at the NYPHVH Chef Peter X. Kelly Teaching Kitchen.

Lunch with Lisa April 10

News 12 reporter Lisa LaRocca visited the Chef Peter X. Kelly Teaching Kitchen on Wednesday, April 10th to prepare lunch recipes particularly focused on diabetes, heart health and cancer. These culinary creations were featured on Lisa's series Lunch with Lisa on Wednesday, April 24th, which focuses on local cuisine in the Hudson Valley. The Chef Peter X. Kelly Teaching Kitchen strikes the balance between healthy and delicious, proving that there is no need to compromise on flavor to eat nutritiously.

Savory dishes included marinated Asian salmon, gingered carrot and cabbage slaw, spring veggie pasta and creamy avocado pesto, while spiced, toasted almonds and chocolate avocado mousse rounded out the menu with a sweet touch. All recipes were developed to reflect good nutrition and a link to diabetes health. A link to each recipe can be viewed at News12.com.

Golden Spoons Volunteer Department Update April

The Golden Spoons program kicked off at NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital in October 2017. Volunteers visit patients and feed those who are not eating due to loss of appetite or weakness. Whether the volunteer is able to feed someone completely, partially, or not at all, their presence and interactions with the patients stimulates socialization, reducing the feeling of isolation that often presents itself.

Currently, there are seven individuals who volunteer their time to serve those in need. They have received training based off adaptations to NewYork-Presbyterian Allen Hospital's successful program. Since January 2019, over 98% of patients received social support, nearly 25% being totally fed and another 27% being partially fed.

Hendrick Hudson High School Hospital Visits March 27 & April 11

Hendrick Hudson High School Students.

Dr. Craig Hametz.

Carmen Azurin, Director of Clinical Laboratory Services, explains lab functions to students.

Students from Hendrick Hudson High School's bio-med program visited the hospital on Wednesday, March 27 for a discussion on cancer, pain management, and alternative treatment options. Information about careers in healthcare was also provided. The panel was led by Lara Scrimenti, MSSL, BSN, RN, NE-BC, Director, Oncology Services.

And, on April 11th, we welcomed science students and teachers from Hendrick Hudson High School back for a program on cardiac disease and rehabilitation. The focus added to their studies, and speakers, including Cardiologist, Dr. Craig Hametz, Cardiac Rehab Manager, Deborah Petranich, and Director of Clinical Laboratory Services, Carmen Azurin, shared insights about career paths in medicine. With the help of his sonographers from NYP Medical Group Hudson Valley – Frank Selca and Kirsten Roldan - Dr. Hametz explained the procedure of an echocardiogram, a test that uses ultrasound to create pictures of your heart, and demonstrated medical findings in real time. The students also had the opportunity to tour the hospital's Lab with Carmen Azurin, Director, and team, and the Cardiac Rehabilitation facility. It was a fun and educational day for all!

Employees of the Month

Dana Annacone January 2019
Registered Nurse—Emergency Department

Dana joined NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital in March 1997 and has continuously demonstrated the core values of the hospital in her everyday practice as a Registered Nurse in our ED. Dana is a “change champion,” one who takes the lead in making new things happen, with steadfast dedication and focus, and in a way that produces respect, admiration and gratitude from all her colleagues. Dana is the Emergency Department’s organizational champion and has been a staff RN and Charge nurse for many years. Dana has the innate characteristics of supporting staff and championing for change in an enlightened way – with creativity and honesty. Dana is the person who voluntarily takes extraordinary interest in providing balance on the unit, encouraging best practice and unknowingly improving employee satisfaction. Dana herself is Chairperson for the Partnership Committee that fosters employee engagement, communication and teamwork with ED Techs and the RN staff, who include many highly-respected veteran nurses. Dana is also an active participant in the Peer Review Board, a MOAB instructor all the while pursuing her own BSN. Dana is a woman who knows no bounds! We are proud to call her January’s Employee of the Month!

Sherri Schecter February 2019
Physical Therapist—Physical Therapy Department

Sherri joined NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital in January 2016. Sherri exemplifies patient-centered care. She is a team player that always works well with all members of the interdisciplinary teams and is respectful in her interactions with members of the staff, patients and their families. Her dedication to her work is proven every day through her quality of care and her commitment to her level of expertise in her field. Sherri always strives to be the best and we are lucky to have such a professional therapist in our midst every day! Sherri is well deserving of Employee of the Month!

Nelson Fuentes March 2019
Specimen Accessioner—Laboratory

Nelson Fuentes joined NewYork-Presbyterian Hudson Valley Hospital in August 2017 as a Specimen Accessioner. From the very first day, one of his co-workers exclaimed that, “Nelson has been fantastic, a team player since the very beginning, and always willing to help everyone!” In a short period of time, he has learned to make the position his own and has a “can do” attitude. His dedication to his work demonstrates his responsibility to patient care and shows his respect for all the members of the patient care team. Nelson understands the value of exceptional quality and service. Nelson never disappoints and rightfully deserves the Employee of the Month! Congratulations, Nelson!
