Tobacco Cessation Awareness Month

November 16th is the Great American Smoke-Out, a day designated to support the efforts of tobacco users who are ready to take a step toward quitting. While each person's struggle with tobacco is unique, this day reminds us that we all have a stake in helping our friends, families, clients, team members, and co-workers find sustainable ways to lead a tobacco-free life.

The NYP PPS Tobacco Cessation Team is celebrating Tobacco Cessation Awareness Month/ National Lung Cancer Awareness Month by launching a Tobacco Cessation listserv to facilitate education and information-sharing among Tobacco

Cessation providers in New York City. The listserv can be used to troubleshoot clinical situations, ask about billing regulations, or learn about best practices in Tobacco Cessation. The listserv administrators and several listserv participants from PPS member community-based organizations are content experts in Tobacco Cessation, and the aim of the listserv is to encourage open dialogue among all members. If you and are interested in joining the listserv, please contact Julie Chipman at chipmaj@nyp.org.
